Dear Griffin:

Several times a year we invite distinguished guest speakers to address some 300 to 500 employees of the Central Intelligence Agency and of other agencies of the Intelligence Community on topics of concern in various fields, including science, diplomacy, and public policy. Our objective is to improve understanding as well as provide an intellectual stimulus for our employees. Among recent guests have been Messrs. Clark Clifford, John Kenneth Galbraith, and John King Fairbank. I believe the program, now in its fifth year, has been successful.

It would give me a great deal of pleasure to have you serve as the CIA Guest Speaker on Tuesday, 8 May 1979, at 3:00 p.m. in our Headquarters Auditorium. The topic I have in mind is "Intelligence and the Legal System."

The Guest Speaker Program consists of a formal lecture of approximately 45 minutes, followed by a 30-minute question period. Lectures are usually scheduled 3:00 to 4:15 p.m.

If 8 May is not convenient for you, we would be happy to discuss another date. Our program usually runs on the ¹³ second Tuesday of the month, but we can easily adjust it to suit your schedule.

It would be a great pleasure for all of us, and ^a personal one for me, to have you accept this invitation. Our Special Programs Officer, [redacted] will be pleased to discuss any aspects of the arrangements with you. She may be reached on [redacted]
